BOOST FOR RESCUE-EULA

THERE is no reason why the stock of this young producer should be allowed to hang around the present mark which is absurd when it is considered that the company is netting around $15,000 a month.

There is no question about the resources of the property and the fact that the ledge in all probability will continue in its full strength for at least another 1300 feet should entitle it to better treatment at the hands of brokers. Rumor mongers have been busy with all kinds of ridiculous reports about the vein pinching out but the tonnage is the best answer to these malicious fabrications. Rescue is the youngest mine in Tonopah and it is a young giant that will flourish long after the present generation takes itself off to different fields.

Manipulation is the only agency responsible for the depression or or rather lack of buoyancy as the stock should sell on its merits today around the 50 cent mark with a dollar in the near future following more extensive development.

GOOD LORD DELIVER US!

EVERY laudable undertaking with its inception in Esmeralda and Mineral counties has for its object the construction of a new highway around Walker Lake using the rugged western shore and shortening the distance to Reno by something like 75 miles. This route would avoid the pitfalls that beset the traveller by the present road especially in the vicinity of Lucky-boy. Altogether the enterprise is one of great merit. The only drawback is the fact that the co-operation of the Nye county board of commissioners is sought with an appropriation to make the project feasible. This is the crux of the situation.

Under ruling conditions the Bonanza is opposed to spending any more money on either town or county roads so long as the expenditure is controlled by the present bunch of misfits sitting in the Tonopah courthouse.

The Bonanza stands for goods roads and is willing to submit to taxation for the purpose of building such improvements but, let it be understood right here, that such public works should not be entrusted to those whose actions only serve to demonstrate their unfitness for the job. The Bonanza is unalterably opposed to road building by a board of commissioners that buys an obsolete second hand auto truck at a price that would go a long way towards buying the best new machine on the market.

Any board that tries to defend its action in imposing a vile composition called tarvia on a long suffering and patient people is not to be trusted with any further expenditure of public moneys. Under the ruling administration road building is farcical in Nye county.

Nye county has had enough of this system of piling up taxes without commensurate returns. The commissioners have proved their aptitude for accumulating debt rather than doing anything on the constructive side of the ledger. Borrowing money to cover shortcomings has been the chief diversion and, in divers other ways, the present board has demonstrated the folly of conferring unlimited authority on makeshift statesmen.

What in the blood is bound to come out and the exorcismence in this case is such a mass of financial putridity that the undertaker should be called or the health board notified to remove the boils from the body politic.

The Nye county commissioners chin, chin, chew the rag and keep up a ceaseless chatter about economy, prate of loss in bullion taxes and indulge in other idle twaddle that it is time for the people to call a halt on any attempt to multiply the burdens that already bear too heavily on the small taxpayer. One of the arguments used by the board on applying to the state for permission to borrow more money was the decrease in bullion taxes when the world knows that Tonopah is in a better and healthier position today and producing more bullion than at any time during the past five years.

A boulevard around Walker Lake would be a beautiful addition to the attractions of the state but there is plenty of time and by waiting a few months the taxpayers will find another and different sort of board sitting in the courthouse that may be trusted with Big Business that is beyond the grasp of the incumbents.

HOME INDUSTRY WEEK

THIS specious talk of a Welfare Week or An Encourage Home Industry Week or whatever one chooses to call it is a paradoxical position for a governor who likes the birds that betrays his own nest disparages his state which others recognize as a land of homesteads aching for the hoid of a friendly settler to develop.

Governor Boyle is a stumbling block for those who are putting their money into industrial development. The governor is supposed to be an engineer, who, by gift of his former profession, is versed in physical problems through the over mastering ingenuity of man. In his capacity as a politician and an accidental executive he stultifies himself by inviting mudthrowing and slander slinging from those whose knowledge of the state is from the invective and slurs of its enemies.

For forty years Nevada has been trying to work out its own salvation and redemption with the aid of eastern capitalists endowed with western courage. Marvellous progress has been made under the most disheartening conditions but it remained for a native son to spew out falsehoods about the land of his birth.

Nevada needs no settlers, this disloyal apostate shrieks.

No? Why not?

The answer is found in the U. S. Land Office at Elko where the enrolment of new citizens is gathering momentum at the rate of a thousand every year.

Who are these people who have the temerity to enter a land lampooned by its own governor as a commonwealth consecrated to the cattle baron and described as unfit for cultivation.

Ninety-five per cent of these homestead entries have been filed by good, healthy minded, robust Republican voters whose ballots must be counted on in the next election.

The governor recently said there was no land fit for settlers in Nevada. Notwithstanding this condemnation these homesteaders are making good. They are reclaiming Nevada in the same sturdy manner that their forebears reclaimed Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois and Utah.

These men and women think for themselves. They resent the innuendoes of Governor Boyle that they are brainless and incapable of reasoning for themselves.

Churchill, Lander, Humboldt, Elko and White Pine counties welcome the peaceful invasion notwithstanding the chief executive of the state aligns himself as an ally of the stockman to repel honest settlers from venturing on the preserves that have been held sacred to private interest for several generations.

Under the circumstances it is amazing how he can ask the people of Nevada one week to observe a time for the development of home industries when he should know that home industries will never thrive in a sparsely settled country and that it is not until population comes that factories find it possible and profitable to work out a fair return on their investments. Consistency is a jewel that does not seem to go with the attributes of a governor in this state.

SAN BERNARDINO HAS ALLEGED GOLD FIND

GOLDSTONE, NEAR BARSTOW, IS SCENE OF STRIKE LIKE DAYS OF '49

A gold strike at Goldstone, about 30 miles north of Barstow, has caused a general rush or practically all able bodied men in the desert metropolis to the field, according to the report of two miners who came to San Bernardino this morning.

The strike was reported Sunday by a prospector carrying several valuable specimens, who entered Barstow and spread the news of the find. Men and boys, packing their supplies, have hastened to the field each day since the report until now, according to the men who came to this city, there remain few able bodied men in the town.

The miners came to San Bernardino to purchase supplies, and expect to make a record run to their claims in the gold field tomorrow morning.—Independent.

AFTER ANTIMONY ORE OF THE BIG WAR PRICE

Wm. Wills left Austin, Thursday morning to join Lee Chun, the Korean miner, in taking out high-grade in Dry Canyon where Joe Bray is leasing producing antimony blocks to all who will tackle the work. McIntire & McLaughlin, who are working a lease on the same property will have two car loads for the Nevada Central today.—Reese River Reveille.

BONES OF CHINK GO HOME BY EXPRESS

REMAINS OF TONOPAH CELESTIAL WILL REST WITH THE MANDARINS

The first bones of a Chinese to be removed from Southern Nevada to the Flowery Kingdom went out by Wells Fargo this morning consigned as ordinary freight. The remains go to San Francisco where they will be gathered with the cadavers of hundreds of others of the same race for transportation across the Pacific. The exhumation was conducted by Frank Cavanagh, the undertaker who was engaged by a cousin of the lamented.

It is one of the fundamental doctrines of Confucianism that no man can enter eternal Nirvana unless his body finds lodgment in the sacred soil of China. In this case it became an established fact that Yee Feng Tong, of Tonopah, has complied with every condition of the creed. Lee was only a common laborer employed in a wash house and died December 5, 1912.

GOLDFIELD MINER FINED FOR SELLING WHISKEY

George Bennetts, a Goldfield miner, was sentenced by Judge J. W. Curtis, to pay a fine of $100 or spend 50 days in jail for selling a bottle of whiskey to a stranger at Goffs on the desert for $1. Bennetts claims the sale was made out of good-friendship and with no intent to violate the law.—San Bernardino Index.
